

Program & Emphasis Requirements

- This part of the proposal form can become a little confusing. Please consider looking through the Course Catalog to find examples of different program requirements.
- If you are struggling to build program requirements, reach out to the curriculum management office and we would be happy to help!
- The following slides include examples of the most commonly used rule condition options from the dropdown menu and how they appear in the published catalog.

Option: Complete All Of

The screenshot shows a rule configuration interface. The 'Rule Condition' is set to 'Complete All Of'. The 'Data Type' is 'Courses'. Three courses are listed: ANTH1010 - Culture and the Human Experience, ART1010 - Introduction to the Visual Arts, and H EDU1010 - Healthy Lifestyles. The 'Rule Name' is 'Core Courses'. The 'Rule Description' and 'Rule Notes' fields both contain the text 'Rule Description shows here.' and 'Rule Notes show here.' respectively. A callout box on the right, indicated by a red arrow, shows the final rule description: 'Core Courses (9 Cr.)' followed by 'Rule Description shows here.' and a list of three courses: 'Complete ALL of the following Courses:' with bullet points for ANTH1010 - Culture and the Human Experience (3 Cr.), ART1010 - Introduction to the Visual Arts (3 Cr.), and H EDU1010 - Healthy Lifestyles (3 Cr.). Below the list is 'Rule Notes show here.' The Utah State University logo is in the bottom right corner.
